The steamer Elianes will resume her trips on Monday next, leaving at 5 p. m. for Hillo. See ter It has been decided that matches shall be mitted free of duty under the freely -a very sensible in decision the opinion of many housekeepers. It is reported that the mail steamer City of New York was to leave San Erancisco punctually at 9 o'clock, Jenuary 1st, in which event she will be due here on Tuesday next.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the birth of Her Majesty Queen Emms, and her numerous friends paid their respects to her, her residence be ing crowded all day with men, women and children. Her Majesty enjoys very good health.

Lost.-We are requested to say that the manuscript volume of Hawalian Antiquities by David Malo, belonging to the Board of Education, is wanted. It was loaned some time ago, and was not returned, as it should have been.

Tue tomato is to be credited with another virtue, that of driving away the curculio and other nozi-ous insects; if we may believe a fruit-grower of Valparaiso, South America. Using some vines be had pulled up as a mulci "ound some peach trees, he observed that the curculion, which were ravag-ing the orchard, left these trees. Following up the List, be found that tomato vices were the abborrence of many sorts of insects; and that an infusion from the fresh leaves of the plant, sprinkled upon roses, orange trees, etc.; drove away all the Insects that infested them. This is worth trying, at all

CONCERT AND TABLEAUX .- On Saturday evening an entertainment was given at the Royal Hawalian Theatre, under the patronage of Their Majostles the King and Queen, consisting of music by native singers, some of whom showed excellent voices, and a series of tablesur. The latter represented the Hawalian Coat of Arms and the Goddess of Liberty, the Artist's Dream, is which appeared successively ten or twelve fair faces; two scenes from Romeo and Juliet in the monument tragedy, and three pictures from King Lear. There was a full house, and about $400 was netted, which will be devoted to the benefit of the Kawaiahao Hoola Labral Association.

MASONIC BANGUET .- On the evening of the fesival of St. John the Evangelist, after the annual installation of officers for the new Masonic year, the members of the two Lodges of the city, vened at the half of Le Progres de l'Oceanie, No. 184, and proceeded from thence in procession, to the dining half of the Hawaiian Hotel, where His Majesty the King, Worshipful Master of Le Progres de l'Oceanie Lodge during the past year, had exused to be provided a most sumptions banquet. The table, which extended the whole length of the hall, was spread with a degree of magnificence sel-dom witnessed in Honolulu. From the East, where Past Master Dominis, representing His Ma-jesty-who was unfortunately detailed at home by illness-presided, to the opposite extreme where the Senior Wardens faithfully obeyed the lojunction to "look well to the West," It was ablaze with the light of chandelates and chandeller reflected from ten thousand mirrors of burnished silver and sparkling out glass. At frequent intervals were placed elegant vases filled with a tropical profusion of lovely flowers of every bue, interspersed with eilver fruit stands which were loaded with domestic and foreign fruit, agreeable to the eye and tempting | United States, it would be his duty to recognize to the painte. Of the viands rich and rare we will only say that there was everything which the most ous spicure could desire, and all was served up in a style which did the highest bonor to the artistic genius of the well-known exterer, Robert von Ohlhaffen. After an hour and a half devoted to gastronomic pleasures, the drator of Le Progres Lodge, H. G. Crabbe, proposed the usual tousts to Their Majestles, the Grand Bodies, sister Lodges, sentiments, to which appropriate responses were made. Before breaking up the Brethren of the Mystic tie joined in Masonic circle around the table discoursed at frequent intervals leaptring strains noder the leadership of Mr. Schmidt.

ANOTHER SCHOOL DEATH .- On Wednesday evening last, Kalanikabua, a well-koown native res dent of the city, dropped dead while eating his supper. He had attended a New Year's feast during the day, and had just returned from a drive, apparently in good bealth. THE SUNDRAM -A week ago this evening the ommanded and owned by Hop. T. Brassey, M. P., ever seen in these waters, having a most exquisite model, and can easily make her fourteen knots nder sail. She has a barkentine rig, and spreads a large surface of canvess. Her internal appointments combine luxury and elegance most perfectly. ham, Commander Brown, R. N., H. F. During her stay in port the by numbers of the ladies and gentlemen of Honolulu. She leaves in a day or two for home, via Japan, China, India and the Suez Canal.

New Year's Day was generally observed as a and the streets were filled with crowded express wagons redolent of made and bad gin. For, to tell the truth, there was more drankenness observable among the aboriginess than has heretofore been usual. During the foremore Company B of the Hawaiian Guards turned out for its first public parade under the command of Licatemant Clarke, making a very creditable appearance. At moon Her Majesty received the ladies of Hosolulu, and a large number availed themselves of the opportunity to congratulate her. The Hou, Mrs. Smith and the Hon. Mrs. Carter received the guests and presented them to Hor Majosty, who was attended by Her Royal Highness Mrs. Dominis, Her Royal Highness Mrs. Cleghorn, the Hon. Mrs. Bishop, the Hon. Mrs. Esposloke, the Hon. Mrs. Espens, and the Hon. Mrs. Hartwell. Among the guests was Mrs. Brassey. The reception is acknowledged by all who were present to have been unusually successful. On the evening of New Year's Day there was a very pleasant impromptu ball at the PARLOR THEATRICALS. - The charming entertain ment given at the residence of E. P. Adams, on Thursday evening was a little out of the usual order of amusements in Honolulu and deserves potice to our columns. It was the representation of a portion of Shakespeare's most admirable play the Merchant of Venice, by several amateur ladies and gentlemen of this place. Hon. H. A. P. Carter as Saylock outdid the Jew himself and so perfect was be in costome, manner and intonation that it was hard to believe that the hard old money lender was her three lovers in a most becoming manner and received the accepted suitor with charming grace, but was still more successful if passible disguised as the roung doctor of laws in disjensing justice to the Jew. Time and space would fail us to note all the attractive points and characters of the play of P. C. Jones carried the audience by storm in over the wretch who for money would have slain Autonio. Indeed the whole was admirably performed and reflected great credit on our talented hostess under whose skill and management this de-lightful entertainment was planned and excented. We thank her for the rare treat.

HONOLULU, JAN. 187, 1877. DEAR SIE,-I am requested by the Hawaiian Caleclan Club to tender you the thanks of the Club as expressed in the following resolution which was passed unanimously at the last meeting on the

"Resolved, that the thacks of the Hawailan Cale donian Club be tendered to the editor and publisher of the Hawaitan Gazzitz for put paragraphs which have contributed much towards the welfare of the Clob."

I may also inform you that at the meeting abovementioned, eight new members were enrolled, and a committee was appointed to enquire but the advisability of holding a "Caledonian Ball" on the 24th of May next; said committee to report at the next meeting the feasibility of the same and the possibility of its success.

The tone of feeling amongst the members gene rally tends to favor the tormation of a "St. Andrew's Charitable Fund" in connection with the Club when the means will permit, and a desire is expressed to make the organization beneficial and helpful, as well as social and entertaining. Fears permanence have been entirely dispelled. I am, dear sir, yours very respectfully,

J. M MacBonald, Secretary Hawaiian Caledonian Club.

It seems to be agreed among the Plenipotentiaries at Constantinople that Bulgaria should be placed under a Christian Governor. The appointment of Simon as President of the Council and Minister of the Interior, and Martel as Minister of Justice, rice Du-faure and Marcere, is officially announced to-day. The Cabinet, therefore, remains as before, with the exception of the above changes.

The World's Washington correspondent interviewthat the inflamatory resolutions and speeches in In-diana were endursed by the people, but that his Administration was not insensible to the necessity of vigilance whether the stories were true or false. He should not, in case of an emergency, heritate to exercise his Constitutional authority, though at the same time he could not see any constion for what he terms the indiscreet manipulation of the Democratic local leaders, and doubted if they were inspired by any higher authority. It was a grave responsibility for any body of men to stir up domestic violence and array themselves against the General Government Whoerer was declared by the President of the Senate to be elected President and Vice President of the them and to surrender to them the reins of authority and this would do ; but he protested that he had no wish to force any particular person upon the people, and would see that the one elected his successor was placed in possession. He was not to be judge of selection; that was to be decided by the Constitution and laws. The President then went on to say that all he had done before and since the election was to see that the laws were obeyed and peace maintained. and he should continue to see that that was done until the last moment of his official life. He said he was gratified to see the conservative temper in Congress, especially among men from the South, and believed that this spirit would prevail throughout the country. The President was in unusually good spirits and talked quite freely, and had no objection whatever to his views being made public.

ALL THAT CERTAIN

And recently occupied by Antone Manuel, deceased with a good Store and Two-Story Dwelling House, Both upon the premises.

The title to the property is perfect, and the Stant is an unusually good one for the retail trade.

Plan of the property can be seen by application to M. Pico, Esq., or A. J. Carturight, Esq. A portion of the purchase money can remain on mortgage.
